Amazing Facts evangelistic series begins » Last Friday evening, an Amazing Facts evangelistic series began at the Greeley and The Adventure churches in northeast Colorado. Evangelist Dave Steward was very excited about the wonderful attendance opening night, which has only grown since then. Mitch Williams, who pastors both the Greeley and The Adventure churches, reported that each location has about 200 attending with around 80 guests at each site. Let's join these church families in prayer as this exciting outreach moves forward!

Christian Record seeks vice president for finance »

Alicejean Baker, from Christian Record Services for the Blind, sent us the following announcement:

Christian Record Services is seeking a vice president for finance. Responsible for accounting, financial planning and analysis and treasury activities. Requires business or accounting degree (MBA/CPA preferred), five years financial experience. Understanding of nonprofit accounting, reporting and marketing are highly desirable, along with a passion for the Adventist church's ministry to help the blind see Jesus.

On the road » This past weekend was spent getting reacquainted with my former classmates from Mt. Pisgah Academy near Asheville, N.C. It is amazing the bonds that were made during that relatively short period in our lives. It seems like hardly any time at all has passed since our graduation. The personalities seemed to have remained the same, and the hearts of my classmates are as gracious as ever. It was a joy to experience the love and encouragement given to each other as we came together. What a blessing to be a part of SDA education!

This coming weekend, our Town Hall meetings continue; Colorado Springs, Colo., is our next stop. We will celebrate Sabbath worship with the Colorado Springs Central Church, and then I will be a part of the seminar training offered there in the
