Twin Peaks youth share about their outreach experience in Belize »

Excitement was at its height for youth members Tatelynn and Chandler

Blood, of Twin Peaks Seventh-day Adventist Church in Louisville, Colo., as they boarded their flight to Belize on October 17. The two joined a group organized by Quiet Hour Ministries, and thoroughly enjoyed their eleven days of working with optical clinics, VBS, school construction, and outreach. Both youth presented the nightly evangelistic seminar that resulted in 14 baptisms. "This was an amazing experience," says Chandler, 13. The two were the third set of youth from Twin Peaks to participate in a mission trip this year, and they hope to go on another trip soon and bring along more of their friends from Twin Peaks.
