Voice of Prophecy to relocate to Loveland, Colo. » We are excited to share that the Voice of Prophecy Radio Ministry has announced that they will be moving from their home in Simi Valley, Calif. to Loveland, Colo. Their long-term plan includes building new offices and studios on a parcel of property that will be donated to the ministry by Campion Academy.

In the mean time, they plan to use office space in the Loveland area with a projected move time of later this coming fall. Read the VOP press release here.

Teen Prayer Summit to meet at Glacier View Ranch » More than 60 young people from around the Rocky Mountain Conference will join together to sing, pray, study their Bibles, and fellowship this weekend at Glacier View Ranch. The RMC Youth Department is hosting this annual event, and are looking forward to working with groups from Campion, Mile High, and many local schools, churches, and homeschool groups. Please join us in praying for this weekend to be a huge blessing to the youth of the Rocky Mountain Conference.

Mission trip to Zambia update » Last week we shared a beautiful update from Lynne Eagan about the mission trip that is being planned for June. Unfortunately, the link to the actual information was broken. Please click here to read read her report.

Correction » Last week we reported that Lakewood Adventist Fellowship has seen 25 baptisms over the last 2 years. That number is actually 35! This is remarkable growth for a small church company lead by a lay-pastor. We are thankful for the work that God is doing through Chuck Gadway, lay pastor, and his faithful flock!
