Share the good news!

Dear Family,

Each week I eagerly log into the Nuggets email account to see what news has come in during the past week, and I'm usually overwhelmed at the amount of news our members share. News about upcoming events at their churches. News regarding unique and exciting ministry opportunities. News about how members are sharing their gifts and talents with their communities.

Every once in a while, I log in and the mailbox is empty. No news to share. That doesn't mean nothing's happening. It just means everyone's too busy making news at the moment. Don't forget to share the good news with the rest of us when the dust settles. I'll be checking my Nuggets email inbox again next week!

I can share that our RMC Teen Prayer Summit is happening this weekend at Glacier View Ranch. I'm excited to have 5 students from my Franktown SDA Church joining more than 100 young people from around the Conference for what is shaping up to be a powerful spiritual retreat for our young people. Join me in praying that each one will be inspired and blessed.

I also happen to know that there will be a Chili Cook-off sponsored by the Fort Collins SDA Church on January 31st. I'll post more about that in next week's edition. I also wanted to share that there is a job opening for an executive director position for ACS Lift. Click to view the job description, and share with anyone you know who might be a good fit.

If you have any news you'd like to share with the greater RMC family, please send me an email. I look forward to hearing from you. Short blurbs are best, and photos are appreciated.

Until next week, have a blessed Sabbath!

Sincerely,

Mark Bond

Communication Director
