Glacier View Ranch is a fantastic witnessing opportunity » Record numbers of campers are showing up this summer; and many are coming from beyond the walls of the Adventist Church. "There are wonderful opportunities here for witnessing," reports Pastor Benjie Maxon, youth ministries and camp director. Jessica Weaver, assistant to the youth director, has done a wonderful job with the evening programming. The programs have blessed both the staff and the campers alike. Last Friday night, along with many requests to study for baptism, there were 19 requests for a Bible from campers who don't have one of their own. Please pray for the outstanding ministry opportunities our young people are receiving at Glacier View.

On the road » This week, Gary Thurber is on the road to recovery. He underwent surgery on Monday to remove a large, non-cancerous tumor that was attached to his adrenal gland. He and Diane are so thankful for all the prayers and warm wishes that have been shared on their behalf.

They expect that Gary will leave the hospital over the weekend, and the doctors say he should plan to spend several weeks recuperating from home.

Please continue to keep Gary in prayer for a quick and complete recovery.
