NEWS NUGGETS

We remember Gerry Chapman and his legacy of faith and constancy »

RMC staff members, along with other friends and family, continue to remember the legacy of Gerry Chapman, director of trust services. Born and raised in Loma Linda, he spent more than 43 years in pastoral ministry in Iowa, Colorado, New Jersey, Ohio and Illinois. His pastoral ministry continued even as he began his service as director of trust services in 1997, filling in as interim pastor for Denver South church and serving as Sabbath School teacher and membership clerk along with his many responsibilities in the trust work.

Gerry considered it a privilege and an honor to serve.

A memorial service took place February 7 at Denver South church where Gerry held membership during his sojourn in Colorado. [\[more\]](#)

Forty-three students leave Denver for mission trip to Dominican Republic »

Forty-three students from Mile High, Vista Ridge and Campion academies, along with students from home schools and public schools boarded a midnight plane for the Dominican Republic Wednesday.

On their way to share the love of Jesus through construction and evangelism, 30 of these students will preach in the capital city of Santo Domingo while others work on the construction of three churches.

Youth Evangelism Coordinator, Jamey Houghton, says, "These students are not only involved in the evangelistic efforts of the world church, but are doing it during their spring break vacation--and there's no other place they'd rather be."

New Communication Director Joins RMC »

Rajmund Dabrowski has been elected Rocky Mountain Conference communication director. A veteran church communicator, Dabrowski will oversee communication activities of the RMC beginning March 1. "We are excited to welcome Rajmund to the conference. His experience at the various church levels, including 16 years as the church's director of communication at the General Conference, will expand our communication ministry and the visibility of our church," said Ed Barnett, RMC president, following the Executive Committee vote on Feb. 17. "We are looking forward to seeing Rajmund's expertise further increase our communication services, contact with the churches and institutions, as well as increasing church awareness in the communities we serve," Barnett added. Former RMC communication director Mark Bond is now a free-lance writer and designer living with his family in Walla Walla, Washington. [\[more\]](#)
