Casper community responds to Good News » Weldon Treat, Casper SDA Church pastor, reports that 50-plus guests from the community are attending the public evangelistic meetings being held at the Casper Church in Casper, Wyo. Many visitors have not missed a night and are excited about what they are learning from Amazing Facts evangelist, Dave Stewart. Let's pray for the Casper Church members as they continue to share the Good News of our Savior's soon return with all the Bible study interests from their community.

Pathfinder Fair crowd expected » More than 300 Rocky Mountain Conference Pathfinders, from all parts of the conference, will gather for the Pathfinder Fair this Sunday at the Albany County Fairgrounds in Laramie, Wyo. Let's keep Benjie Maxon, RMC youth director; Chris and Don Hill, our RMC Pathfinder coordinators; the area coordinators and the local club leaders in our prayers as they work together to make this a great day for our young people.

Native American Camp Meeting draws crowd » This past weekend the Native American Camp Meeting was a Spirit-filled convocation. The event was held at La Vida Mission, a self-supporting Seventh-day Adventist Mission to the Navajo. There were people who came from all across the Navajo Nation to worship and fellowship together.

Choirs and guest musicians came from as far away as Monument Valley, Utah, and Holbrook Indian School in Holbrook, Ariz., to participate in the special event. There was also wonderful programming for children throughout the weekend.

The camp meeting theme was "Go Light Your World." Speakers for the event were Blake Jones, Piñon Hills (N.M.) District pastor; Eric Nelson, RMC vice president for administration; Charlie Whitehorse, Pacific Union Conference native ministries coordinator; and me. We appreciated all the event coordination provided by Dolores Bentley, La Vida Mission director, and Polly and Dori Panganiban, La Vida Mission evangelism coordinators, and the rest of the La Vida staff.

RMC Graduation Schedule » Our three academies—Campion, Mile High, and Vista Ridge—will be hosting their graduations over the weekend of May 25–27. For a list of times, click here »
