Encouraging first quarter tithe reported » The Rocky Mountain Conference is rejoicing with the 1st quarter tithe report. "So far, we are seeing regular tithe at about 6.8% for the first quarter," shares George Crumley, RMC vice president for finance. tithe continues to flow in at the current rate, we will end the year ahead of inflation, which is typically in the 3 percent range. When a conference ends the year with no increase, or just an increase of 2 to 3 percent, they actually are not keeping up with inflation. In order to be healthy financially, a conference would ideally end the year ahead of inflation.

If you are not currently experiencing the blessing of tithing, prayerfully consider "testing" the Lord in this matter.

ABC Spotlight:

Dick Stenbakken » The book of the month at the Rocky Mountain

ABC is The Man With the Reversible Foot. In this heartwarming book by author, Susan Harvey, you'll meet Colorado's own Dick Stenbakken.

You probably already know him. He may have spoken at your church or an event you've attended.

Maybe you've seen him present Bible characters in full costume.

But in The Man With the Reversible Foot, you'll find the story behind the man. You'll learn of his years of service in the military and the pranks he pulled on friends with his "reversible foot." But most importantly, you'll discover like Stenbakken, that if you want to make a difference in this world, you can!
