RMC Kaléo Project plans trip to Dominican Republic

» Plans are being laid for the Kaleo Project 2015 evangelism trip. Students from around the Rocky Mountain Conference will be heading to the Dominican Republic in March to build a church and school, and to hold 15 evangelistic meetings. Both veteran youth evangelists and new youth evangelists are about to begin their training to preach the gospel of Jesus!

We have hardworking youth who are committed to building places of worship and education so that the church in the Dominican Republic can continue to grow. Our young people are starting to raise funds to attend this mission trip, and if you would like to help make it possible for an RMC youth to participate in spreading the gospel, please consider donating online here.

Over the past two years of the existence of the Kaleo Project, more than 30 evangelistic series have been preached, along with several building projects. More than 400 people have been baptized because our youth are willing to go all over the world to preach love and hope in Jesus!
