NEWS NUGGETS

Campion Church holds worship service in the mountains » Teresa Johansen, secretary of the Campion SDA Church, sent us this update about last weekend's church service in Rocky Mountain National Park:

Campion Church and Campion Academy experienced a Sabbath in Rocky Mountain

National Park together. The day was supposed to be 60 degrees, with rain predicted, but the Lord blessed us with a beautiful day with the sun shining and the rain holding off until very late in the day.

As we sat in the amphitheatre at the Moraine Discovery Center and the sun shone across the valley below us, God's presence was felt by all of us. Chaplain Nick Clark and several students led out in the church service and shared new ideas from Luke 5:1-11.

Visual lessons were presented by student scholars in boat building, languages, and a challenge to do what God asks us to do in faith, even though it looks impossible. The program was followed by a lunch of haystacks and cinnamon rolls.

The afternoon featured Bear Lake, easy hikes, strenuous hikes, and a trip to the top of Trail Ridge. Many students had never seen the wonders of God's nature at that altitude before. It was a wonderful opportunity for church members to connect with the academy students in the great outdoors.

Aspen Park Church hostsRevelation Bible study » Ann

Maxwell shares this exciting opportunity to partner with the Aspen Park SDA Church in prayer:

This summer, our pastor, Ron Spurling, and his wife, Dani, began to pray earnestly for God to send someone from the mountain community to ask for Bible studies.

One day while at work at the Food Bank of the Rockies, Terri, a member of the Journey Church in Conifer and a friend of Dani's, mentioned that her Bible study group of women had been doing Beth Moore Bible studies and now wanted to do a study on Revelation. She mentioned that the group was having trouble finding a study on that book.

Dani replied that her husband could share a study on Revelation, and she gave Terri Ron's phone number. Terri eagerly discussed when and where the group could meet with Ron. The first meeting was scheduled to begin on a Monday evening in the fellowship hall of the Aspen Park Church.

Terri and her friends excitedly began to tell their friends about this study and were immediately informed that Adventists do not believe in the rapture. So the next time that Terri saw Dani at work, she asked about what Adventists believe about the rapture.

Dani confirmed what she had heard. Terri angrily responded, saying that she was going to cancel the study with Ron. That Sabbath, Ron asked our church to pray about this, which we did. The next week, Terri called Ron back asking if they were still on for the study! Terri and her group have since met two times with Ron and have enjoyed the study.

One time, a husband came with his wife to make sure the doctrines were biblical and not just Adventist doctrine. They left impressed. We continue to pray that this group of women will see that what Adventists teach is biblical. Our church would love to have others join us in prayer as this group continues to study on Monday evenings!

CORRECTION: Satellite Ministry comes to CORTEZ »

Last week, we told you about Troy Osborn's involvement in satellite ministry. The story was true, but the location was an error. We told you that he was working in Durango, but the fact is that he's a member of the Cortez SDA Church. We're sorry for the error!
